STAFF UNION INTERNAL CIRCULAR

SU/CIRC/7

August 2017

Demonstration of solidarity in case of natural or man-made disasters

Objective: The aim of this circular is to ensure the consistency of the practices followed by the Staff Union with regard to demonstrations of solidarity in the event of natural or man-made disasters. This includes, but is not limited to, fundraising, minutes of silence, communications and / or other demonstration of solidarity.

Article 1: The purpose of the Staff Union is to defend and promote the professional, economic and social interests of all persons employed by the International Labour Organization. It is not intended to intervene in the event of natural or man-made disasters.

Article 2: In the event that one or more staff members suffer directly from the consequences of such an event, the Staff Union reserves the right to act in its own name using whatever means it deems appropriate and in a manner commensurate with the consequences of the event for the staff member(s). The means employed shall be submitted to the vote of the Staff Union Committee.

Article 3: In situations not covered by Article 2, staff members who wish to organize a demonstration of solidarity may submit a request for support to the Staff Union (applicant(s)), which will make available its logistical means to the extent possible.

Article 4: In the event of fund-raising, the recipient of the collection must be clearly identified and approved by the Staff Union Officers.

The recipient must be a recognized staff union, staff association or humanitarian organization.

The funds will be deposited into the Staff Union's solidarity account (see Appendix I).

The Staff Union will arrange the transfer and notify the applicant(s) when the funds have been transferred.
