

RESOLUTION

on the study of the work of ILO offices in industrialised countries

The ILO Staff Union, convened at its Annual General Meeting convened on 4 October 1991,

CONCERNED about the implications of the review of branch offices in industrialised countries for the security of employment of the staff employed in those offices;

INSTRUCTS the Staff Union Committee to represent these concerns to the Administration and to take such steps as are necessary to protect the interests of branch office staff.
