

RESOLUTION

on provisional measures to be taken until the election of a new Staff Union Committee

The Staff Union of the ILO, convened in an Extraordinary General Meeting in Geneva, on 1 October 1999,

CONSIDERING the unforeseen situation resulting from the resignation of all members of the Staff Union Committee in Geneva, and

AWARE of the need to deal with the current affairs of the Staff Union until the Committee resulting from the forthcoming elections takes office,

DECIDES:

to mandate the members of the outgoing Committee as a whole to form an interim Committee so that the current affairs of the Staff Union can be processed by consensus until the new Committee takes up its mandate.
